

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your neighbors. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

AT THE THEATERS

Considering the weather, both of the airdomes were well filled at both shows last night. The Coliseum had the larger house. Both houses changed their bills. Tuesday night will see an entire change of people at both places. Many believe that the Coliseum has had the best complete bill the past week ever presented since the opening night, and it has, although there have been better acts taken individually. At the Majestic, Madame Wanda and her troupe of eighteen trained English coach dogs will be the feature of the new bill. Coming on the 14th Al Bini, the most talked of act of its kind in the country, will be presented to Phoenix at this house. Tuesday night will open an unusually strong bill at the Coliseum, a bill that will be entirely different from any previously seen here. Deverne and Van have a high-class comedy act with lots of music that demands a fat salary for the week. Sherlock and Holmes make another good team act, and Winfield Scott, "The Lone, Last Chief," guarantee a screaming success.

Grand.

Dave Morris and Joe Egan worked hard for first place last night, and so close were they that a decision could not be made. "I Guess I'll Take a Train Back Home," by Egan, won a good hand. Dave Morris was the best seen in characterization since he has been here. Mr. and Mrs. Nell Litchfield also received what was due them, a good hand.

Coliseum. Steele and Mc Masters in their roller skating act since they received their apparatus are by far the best act in the city. Westernman is as good in his new act as in his first one. The Arabian tumbling act is pleasing better and more interest is being shown by the performers. This is an act that has taken years of untiring practice, many a tumble, many a chance at death and is worthy of the great hand they receive every night.

MR. AND MRS. HOROVITZ RETURNED FROM EAST

Former Saw Two Men Drop Dead
From Effect of the Heat.

M. B. Horovitz and wife of the Horovitz district, southwest of Phoenix, have returned from a visit to St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit and other eastern cities in which they formerly lived and some places they did not live. Altogether they have had a most enjoyable summer outing.

One of the most interesting parts of their trip was the stay at Detroit, where they saw the big grand circuit races. Mr. Horovitz met J. C. Adams there and also met a great many of the horsemen who were attending the meeting, many of them telling him they would bring their strings to the Phoenix fair.

But cutting the recital of the trip short, Mr. Horovitz said that simmering it all down to a sentence he saw no part of the country that in his opinion could compare favorably with the Salt River valley. The heat in many of the places, he said, was almost unendurable, particularly in St. Louis, where Mr. Horovitz said he saw two men fall dead from the effects of it.

A DESIRE FOR SELF-EXPRESSION

We hear a great deal of criticism of the greed of rich men which keeps them pushing ahead after they have more money than they can ever use to advantage but the fact is many of these find their reward in the exercise of their powers not in amassing money, and greed plays a comparatively small part in their struggle for conquest.

Of course, this is not true of all rich men. Many of them are playing the game, and keep on playing it, for the love of accumulating. Their selfishness and greed have been indulged so long that they amount to a passion and the accumulators oftentimes become money-mad.

But the higher type of man plays the game from start to finish for the love of achievement; because it satisfies his sense of duty of justice; plays it because it satisfies his passion for expansion for growth. He plays the game for the training it gives, for the opportunity of self-expression. He feels that he has a message to deliver to mankind, and that he must deliver it like a man.—From Success Magazine.

But why should editors include Walter Welton's attempt among "dashes to the polar regions." Walter's trip of thirty-two miles was not a dash—it wasn't even a hyphen.—Exchange.

A PROMISING FIGHT STOPPED BY POLICE

Well Matched "Scrap" Between Blacksmith and Sidewalk Layer
Ends in One Round

What might have proved a first-class set-to, and good for any number of rounds, between a blacksmith and a sidewalk layer was interrupted early yesterday morning by the untimely appearance of Officer Fraley of the night police force.

The fight started in the Anheuser restaurant after the saloon was closed for the night. Both men are husky and brawny. Just enough blows were struck to show that the men were evenly matched and in fine condition. Frank Spitz, who works for Frenchy Vieux, was one of the combatants, and the other was Frank Jarex, employed at the Davidson blacksmith shop.

Fraley was walking down the alley just outside when he heard the scuffling of chairs on the floor and the biff, bing, as the blows struck home. When he entered the place he found the fight in full progress between the counter and the pool tables. The men, both of whom were sober, were doing the best they could to annihilate each other in the narrow space. They were taken to the station and released on $10 bail each.

"Another Arctic expedition gone wrong."

"So, I see." "Think they'll ever reach the pole?" "Oh, yes. Some day one of the newspapers will get mad and send a reporter after it in a cab."—Washington Herald.

FROM THE BENCH

A Judge Commends Pure Food

A judge of a Colorado Court said: "Nearly one year ago I began the use of Grape-Nuts as food. Constant confinement indoors and the monotonous grind of office duties had so weakened and impaired my mental powers that I felt the imperative need of something which neither doctors nor food specialists seemed able to supply."

"A week's use of Grape-Nuts twice each day convinced me that some unusual and marvelous virtue was contained therein. My mental vigor returned with astonishing rapidity; brain weariness (from which I had constantly suffered) quickly disappeared; clearness of thought and intellectual health and activity which I had never previously known were to me the plain results of a few months use of this food."

"Unhesitatingly I commend Grape-Nuts as the most remarkable food preparation which science has ever produced so far as my knowledge and experience extend."

The judge is right. Grape-Nuts food is a certain and remarkable brain builder and can be relied upon. "There's a Reason."
